ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear Colleagues & Friends,

Launch of Sterling Stamp

I am extremely pleased, honoured and excited to announce the launch of Sterling Stamp Law Firm, a new boutique specialist law firm headquartered in London, United Kingdom, providing a trusted and value-added service to its clients.

Some of the truly unique attributes of Sterling Stamp is its combination of cross-jurisdictional, multilingual legal expertise and practice excellence which delivers a truly distinct competitive edge and advantage for our clients seeking a fresh approach from a firm committed to results.

Sterling Stamp in Brief

Sterling Stamp Law Firm has an enviable and demonstrable track record of experience between its principal lawyers and other legal staff. The firm delivers a superior and more cost-effective service to its clients compared to what a traditional law firm is able to offer because Sterling Stamp's principals have had long and distinguished careers in-house including Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel, Legal Director, Board Secretary and Head of Legal and Compliance roles within many established blue chip companies and also successful start-up organisations in different jurisdictions.

Sterling Stamp is authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority of England and Wales under registration number 420679. Sterling Stamp is headquartered in London but the firm has a strong footprint and provides services to clients globally including the UK, Europe, Middle East, North Africa, the Caribbean and ASEAN regions.

Sterling Stamp accepts instructions and advises in English, French and Arabic. It has expertise in Common Law, Civil Law and Sharia Law jurisdictions.

The language capabilities of Sterling Stamp as well as the fact that its lawyers having lived and worked in the regions where most of the firm's clients are based, is a unique recipe that ensures that Sterling Stamp is culturally aware and cognisant of the different ways of doing business in those countries domestically and cross-border.
